ALMOND ELEMENTARY'S NIGHT AT THE OSCARS!

A NIGHT FOR AWARD-WINNING SUPPORT

Dear Almond Community,

Welcome to Almond's Night at the Oscars 2010! I am so pleased that you can join us on this special evening, sponsored by the Almond Parent-Teacher Association. Tonight you can look forward to:

- reconnecting with some old friends, and meeting new people from the Almond Community;
- mingling and enjoying great food and drink;
- bidding on amazing auction items to support our fabulous school in a fun and social way.

The monies raised from this Oscar Night will help support the many stellar programs offered at Almond School, including: technology equipment and instruction, music, art and drama instruction for grades K-3, assemblies, and professional development opportunities for our dedicated staff. The list goes on and on.

Few public schools are fortunate enough to be able to provide the rich program that Almond School provides. These educational experiences are only possible through parent support at events such as tonight's Almond's Night at the Oscars.

I extend a special thank you to Liz Parker, chair of this gala, and to her entire committee for providing the leadership and enthusiasm to make this event successful. A special thank you also goes to the Almond staff and parents for their tremendous support of this event. Our children achieve because we all work together. We are a community driven to give our children the very best education. With this, they can be well-rounded, confident, and resilient leaders with endless opportunities.

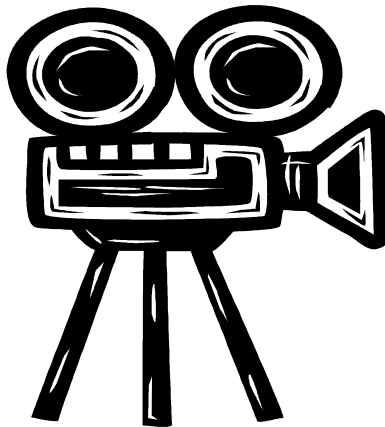

Enjoy the festivities of this evening and know that we appreciate your support and donations. Your generosity will enable us to continue to provide a high quality academic program, supported by studies in music, technology & the arts. Have a wonderful evening!

With Appreciation,

Terri Stromfeld
Principal, Almond Elementary School

General Auction Guidelines:

Please read the descriptions of all items carefully. The Auction Committee reserves the right to remove an item from the auction. We have endeavored to describe items correctly, but all items in the silent and live auctions are offered “as is”, so Almond is in no way responsible for the correctness of the description, authorship, genuineness, or condition of the item or property. No statement given in the auction catalog, made by the auctioneer, or made anywhere else shall be deemed to be a warranty or an assumption of liability.

Almond is not responsible for business or other failures beyond our control that may result in the loss or non-delivery of items purchased at the auction. Please plan to have one person pay for an item or items that may be shared. Also, if you bid for someone and they win, you are responsible for paying for their item(s) at the end of the auction. Finally, all experiences sold at the auction are to be undertaken at the sole risk of the purchaser.

SILENT Auction:

1. Enter your bid by signing your bid number & your name on the appropriate monetary line posted on the bid sheet.
2. The minimum opening bid and automatic monetary increases are noted on each bid sheet.
3. Once a bid is entered, it may NOT be removed.
4. The winning bid(s) will be determined by the auction officials at the close of bidding.
5. The closing of the tables will be gradual, and this will be announced.
6. Once the tables are closed, the auction officials will gather bid sheets and note the highest bid.
7. All bids will be compiled onto a summary sheet for every person who bid.
8. All items must be paid for upon check-out at the end of the evening. We accept credit card, check, or cash.

Single Winner Items:

1. Your bid must exceed the previous bid by the minimum increase amount to be considered a valid bid.
2. The highest valid bid at the close of the bidding is the winner of that item.
3. If you choose “Buy it Now” at the top of the bid sheet, then you will automatically be the winner and also responsible for the corresponding payment for that item. Choosing this option nullifies all other bids.

Flat Fee Items:

1. A number of items that serve multiple people are offered for a flat fee.
2. If you are interested in purchasing a flat fee item, place your bid number and name on an open line that has the flat fee indicated.
3. Once all of the lines with the amount of the item are filled, the event is closed.

LIVE Auction:

You must use your bid card to place your bid(s) during the LIVE auction. Each couple has been assigned one bid number. Bidders are financially responsible for the use of bid numbers. Highest bidders on all items are expected to pay for these items at the end of the evening. You may use credit card, check or cash.

The LIVE Auction will start at 8:45pm and will be conducted by the auctioneer. To bid on an item, raise your card to show your bid number clearly. The auctioneer will acknowledge your bid and an auction volunteer will note your bid. The highest acknowledged bidder is responsible for buying the item.

If a LIVE auction is suitable for group bidding, one person is to be designated as the lead bidder to represent the group and is responsible for payment of the item. The winning bidder must pay the full purchase price at check-out.

Let the Bidding Begin!
